Edward J. Boling

Boling Chosen President; Board Meets Two Hours

Dr. Edward J. Boling, president of the University of Tennessee at Knoxville, was chosen president of the Board of Trustees at a meeting held last night.

The Board of Trustees met for a special session last night for two hours before announcing the decision. The selection was made exactly six months after President Bolt announced his retirement, and two days after full-quarter classes in the UT system ended.

Soon after the presidential selection was announced, Knoxville Student Government President Humble Baxter, member of a faculty-student screening committee that examined candidates, issued a statement claiming that "the selection process was obviously a charade."

ANOTHER KNOXVILLE STUDENT on the faculty-student committee, Huell Howser, said the trustees "have completely disregarded the recommendations of both UT-Knoxville and UT-Chattanooga student-faculty advisory committees who strongly recommended that Dr. Boling not be named."

The other main candidate in the final round of presidential selection was UTM Chancellor Dr. Archie Dykes. Support for Dr. Dykes came mainly from students and faculty, while Dr. Boling's support included such influential persons as Gov. Buford Ellington and Dr. Holt.

WHILE ACCEPTING THE nomination, Dr. Boling spoke about his new position and the future. Some of his comments were:

"I haven't said much to students and faculty in the past because that has not been my main job, but I will be talking with them a lot in the future."

"I AM NOT AT all pessimistic. I have the greatest respect for the students at UT and I plan to talk with various student leaders to see what their thinking is."

"I think many of them thought the board was searching for a chancellor, not a president. Many, many of these students want to be a part of UT's future."

"IN YEARS PAST, during Dr. Holt's administration, we concentrated on continuing enrollment growth, campus expansion, and improving academic standards—and we've done a great job at it."

"WE'VE GOT TO concern ourselves with the individual and the problems of society."

"I have been working in an area outside the university system and I want to get some constructive ideas. I'll be listening to the people across the state who have made this university the great institution it is."

DR. BOLING WAS born on Feb. 19, 1922, in Sevier County, Tenn., and grew up in Knoxville. He worked at night while attending UT during the day, received his bachelors degree in accounting in 1948 and a masters degree in statistics in 1950.

From 1948 to 1950, Dr. Boling taught at UT. He then worked as supervisor of an accounting division with Union Carbide Corporation at Oak Ridge until 1954.

Josh White, Jr. Concert Set Fri.

Josh White, Jr., one of the nation's top folk entertainers, will perform a two-hour concert in the Field House at 8 p.m. Friday.

WHITE HAS APPEARED in five Broadway plays, toured the United States and Europe, and has been on several national television shows. He performs about 150 concerts each year, and has presented his talents at over 800 colleges.

"I like college concerts best of all," White said in an interview following his first visit to UTM in 1968.

"IN CONCERT, YOU have two hours to really get to know your audience and for them to be able to know you," he added. "The college students come just to listen to you, while the patrons of clubs may just be stopping by for a drink or a quiet conversation."

Sponsored by the Student Government, general admission tickets are $2.00 each.

COLD LAST GRASP—Still clutching his registration cards, this heroic student was covered by a snow drift just before he made the sanctuary of a classroom. If he doesn't thaw within a few days, he may be dropped from the roll.

Two Injured In Jump

Fraternity House Fire Threatens Buildings

by Patti Field

Fire of still undetermined origin destroyed the Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity house on Oxford Street early Wednesday morning, Dec. 17.

TWO FRAT MEMBERS were injured when the rapidly-spreading flames forced them to jump from the second floor. Ted Mac Brush, a junior from McKenzie, received a broken wrist, and Mike Malvan, a junior from Martin, was treated for possible back injuries. Both were later released from Volunteer General Hospital.

A third Pike, sophomore James Smith from Martin, was not injured when he jumped. One frat member said there were 11 men in the house prior to the fire.

THE ALARM WAS turned in about 4:30 a.m. by both fraternity members and neighbors. When the Martin fire department arrived moments later, the house was already enveloped in flames.

"We never had a chance of saving the fraternity home itself," Chief Buster Williams told the WEEKLY COURTY. "When we concentrated men, seeing the house immediately to the east and west."

THE HOUSE, for the most part, owned by Assistant Professor of English Mildred A. Payne, received heat, water, and water. Hot water was running through.

The house, for the most part, owned by Mrs. Mary Payne, was suffering little damage.

"I AM NOT SURE if we saved the house or not," Williams said. "The flames of fire were so hot, we had to get out of the house and run away. We were so hot, we had to get out of the house and run away. We were so hot, we had to get out of the house and run away."

The house, for the most part, owned by Mrs. Mary Payne, was suffering little damage.

CAUTION: Newspapers may be hazardous to your health.

THOSE WORDS ARE not written concerning a specific newspaper, but Professor Jerome A. Motto of the University of California School of Medicine at San Francisco believes that newspapers are hazardous to your health and may even cause suicide.

Professor Motto stated that "the suicide rate in the Detroit area dropped 20 per cent below normal "during last year's newspaper strike.

"THE SUICIDE RATE for women in particular dropped by 50 per cent, to three per 100,000 during the newspaper blackout," the professor reported.

Professor Motto blamed newspapers for their "constant emphasis on violence, aggression, sexuality, power, and notoriety."

VSAC Play Increases; Matmen Win No.1

Competition in the Volunteer State Athletic Conference begins in earnest for the Vols tonight and Saturday when Christian Brothers College and Bethel College invade the Field House, both at 7:30 PM.

THE ORANGEMEN ARE presently on the short end of a 3-7 record.

After solidly defeating Delta State on the home court, 89-66, the Vols dropped home-and-away games against the University of Missouri at St. Louis and lost on the road to Lemoyne-Owen and Middle Tennessee State.

AT A COMPARABLE time last year, the '68-'69 Vols had a 1-6 slate, but back-to-back victories against Christian Brothers and Bethel College propelled the UTM roundballers into a winning "second season" and a 5-3 VSAC record.

The Lemoyne-Owen loss put the Vol conference record at 0-1, but the CBC and Bethel contests, along with two more home games next week, give this years hoop stuffers a chance to get into winning form for the Western Division VSAC race with CBC, Bethel, Belmont, Union, and Lemoyne-Owen.

The leading scorers in double figures for the Vols are Don McDonald, 16.8, Mike Rudolphi, 14.1, and Leonard Hamilton, 10.6. Rudolphi also leads the team in rebounds with a 13.1 average.

AFTER DRIVING FOR a 3-1 mark before Christmas break, the UTM freshman basketball team will face the Christian Brothers freshmen squad at 5:30 this evening.

The first-year Orangemen gained their third win of the season last month by handing Goodyear of Union City its first defeat of the year, 91-75.

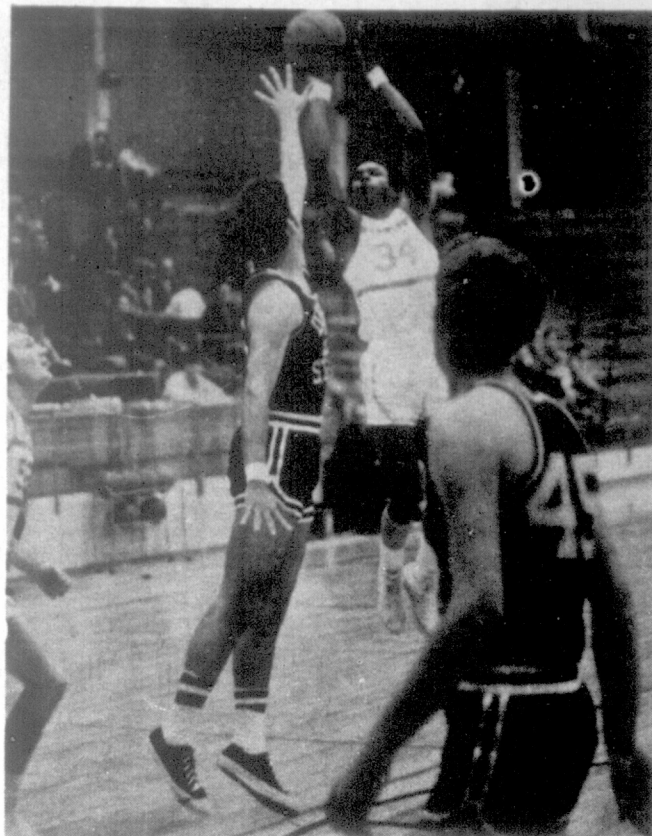

CENTER KEN REED was the pace setter with 28 points and added to his scoring lead with an 18.5 average.

"All of our boys are hard workers and are eager to improve, but they still have quite a bit more to learn," Coach Roger Shore said.

"WE HAVE FOUR boys that have played good ball so far, Jim Bentley, Mel Page, Ken Reed, and Mike Donahue, but they still need experience," Shore commented. "These four have been carrying the majority of the load so far."

The other scores include victories over Southwestern, 85-71, and Arkansas State, 93-88, plus a 97-76 loss to Austin Peay.

Jan.	Upcoming Games
7	Christian Brothers
10	Bethel College
14	Austin Peay State
17	Union University
(Freshmen 5:30 p.m.; Varsity 7:30 p.m.)

TWO PLUS TWO EQUAL FOUR—Leonard Hamilton (34, above) and Don McDonald (10, below) try for a pair in the Delta State and UMSL home matches last month. The Vols open a four-game home stand tonight at 7:30 against Christian Brothers College.

Wrestlers Pin Win In Meet

Intercollegiate wrestling at UTM opened successfully last month when the Volunteer grapplers defeated Southeast Missouri 26-16.

BEFORE A PREMIER gathering of some 300 fans, the Vol matmen took six of 10 weight events in the first meet in school history.

The half dozen wins went: Wade Judkins 11-10 over Jerry Hunt; Steve Chambers 11-9 over Mike Morris; Vic Lee pinned Dave Bertran in 4:56; Hal Russell pinned Bob Wissone in 2:08; and Carl Summers and Larry Giannini won on forfeits.

"OUR FIRST MEET of the season showed tremendous promise for a winning year," Coach Richard Reisel said.

"Since our first six wrestlers are freshmen participating in their first intercollegiate meet, we look forward to a promising future for amateur wrestling at UTM," Reisel added. "I was also pleased with the crowd participation since this is a relatively new sport in Northwest Tennessee."

The Volunteers host Milligan College on Saturday, January 17, at 2 p.m. in the Field House.
